the bullet which came so near ending his life, Mr. Frederick W. Emrich was in Judge Miller's police court this forenoon to testify in the case of Charles Phillips, colored, bis alleged assailant, who was charged with sult to kill while attempting to commit highway robbery.

The prisoner, a short mulatto, with shifting eyes and smooth face, save a small ouch of side whiskers, was neatly attired. His attorney, Frank Closs, had Fred Phillips, a brother of Charles, in court, and they sat side beside within the rail. The brothers closely resemble each other, and Detective Hartigan, who worked up the case, said they were placed together to confuse the government witnesses as to identification. When arranged by Clerk Potts, the prisner pleaded not guilty, and Mr. Emrich was called to the witness stand. He was so weak that Balliff Hooe handed him a chair. He stated that he left his store, on Indiana avenue, about 12:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, September 20; after making his last collection of receipts. He had the money from all his stores in a leather satchel. MR. EMRICH'S STORY.

-Witness-standed west in his phacton and had reached Indiana avenue and Fourth street, when he was shot from behind by some unknown person. The bul-let entered the back of his neck on the right side, just below the base of the skull. The second shot was fired when the assailant was twenty feet behind oing away, but could not identify bim. He recognized Charles Phillips as having een an errand boy in his employ about six months ago. He knew Mr. Emrich's habits and had frequently seen him come to the store to make his collection of the proceeds. "Was he an enemy of yours?"" asked the

"I don't know that I have an enemy." eplied Mr. Emrich. The witness said the wound in his neck pained him, and after his testimony he was excused by Judge Miller-ANOTHER WITNESS CALLED.

Charles E. Dupont was next-called. He testified that while on his way to the Baltimore and Ohio depot about 12:30 o'clock on the morning of Sunday, September 30, he saw a colored man standing at the corner of Third street and Indiana ave moe, which is about fifty yards from the scene of the shooting. The man acted in a suspicious manner, which attracted Mr. Dupont's attention. As the witness passed the stranger pulled his hat down over his

Mr. Queen balted and saw two bleveles, and then a man ran rapidly into the alley. Witness followed him, and heard a door slam. At the same time the fleeing Individual disappeared suddenly. He had on dark clothes.

"Do you see the man here?" he was asked. Pointing to the prisoner, Mr. Queen said with deliberation: "That is the man."

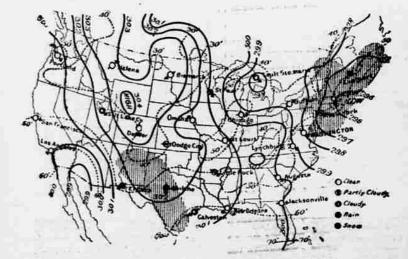

PICKED OUT PHILLIPS. He also stated that he had never seen Phillips before that morning. Several days later Detective Hartigan took him before five colored men in a room at Lieut-Kelly's station, and he at once picked out Phillips as Mr. Emrich's assailant.

Mr. D.S. Morgan, the next witness, heard the pistol shots and saw people running. He said a colored man ran south on Third street, turned the corner at C street, and continued running east.

Susie Barnes, colored, was in her window in Adams' Express alley, about the time of the shooting. She saw two men side Washington. In Kensington thirteer new voters were registered. All of them have been living there for years, and all are Republicans. In Chevy Chase there was a marked increase, as well as in Bethesda precinct

The increase in the colored vote come from the fact that the Republicans are or have made it a point to see that every colored man entitled to vote got his hame on the registry. Of the 500 new voters, the Republicans expect to secure nearly the ntire number.

But the Republicans will miss one this year. It is that of the Hon. B. H. Warner, Mr. Warner applied to the regis-trars of the Thirteenth district, Wheaton, but they turned him down. They claimed be had not established a residence, yet.

Mr. Warner did not threaten an appeal IN PRINCE GEORGE. In Prince George county there has been an irrince deerge county incre has been a large increase in the registration. The colored votets were registered in much larger numbers than ever before. The Republicans feel sure of a corking big majority now. An especial increase has been secured in the Hyattsville and the Bladensburg di trict. In Bladensburg alone there was an increase of forty votes. Nearly all of them will stand by the Republican party. Reports from all parts of the county show that the increase has been marked. At each registering place there have been officials who know the politics of the voter regis who know the pointes of the voter regis-tering, and in this way an estimate can be made of the result. It is on this that the Republicans base their claims. With 6,000 takets distributed for the big joint debate tomorrow night, there is but little to do in preparing for the affair. An effort will be made today to have more seats already in Convention Hall. It is An effort win be made today to have more sears placed in Convention Hall. Three Policemen Fined.

The Commissioners today issued orders for the imposition of a fine upon each of three policemen recently tried for violation of the regulations, respectively, as follows. C. W. Skinner, for absence without leave, $10; C. E. Langiey, for neglect of daty, $5; A. J. Kimmel, absence without leave, $25. Would Mislead Voters.

Jefferson City, Mo.; Oct. 15.—The secre-tary of state declined yesterday to file the Silver party ticket, on the ground that it, under the caption, "Silver party ticket," with Democratic and Populist fusion electors and the Republican State ticket, would be misleading to voters. Martinelli Leaves for New York. Archbishop Martinelli, the apostolic dele-gate, left for New York today to pay his gate, let for New York Ostay to pay and farewell respects to Cardinal Satoli and to be present at the reception tendered the cardinal at the Catholic Club of Brookly tonight. Mgr. Martinelli was accompanied by Mgr. Sbarretti and Dr. Rooker, of the Naval Orders. Commander X. L. Tamer has been de-tached from duty with the Fish Commission, and ordered home to await orders. Wooden Legs Worn B. C. Herodotus (484-408 B. C.) mentions the case of a prisoner who amputated his own leg to escape from his shackles, and, es-caping to his friends, was provided with wooden substitute.

Nearly All Stocks Followed in the Rise of the Market. New York, Oct. 15.—Stocks, after a steady opening, developed strength on covering of short sontracts put out yester-day on the belief that the Bank of England old advance its rate of discount. The diwould advance its rate of discount. The di-rectors of this institution, at its weekly meeting today, decided to take no action in the premises, and the rate remains at 3 per cent, the same as last week. Under purchases by the bears prices in the first hour moved up 1-4 to 27-8 per cent, American Tobacco leading. This stock rose to 75, and was in demand on the old report of a deal with its West-ern competitors. Leather preferred ad-vanced 1 to 60 1-4 on the improved trade conditions, and Sugar rose to 198 7-8 on the advance in refined. In the railway list the gains were less important, ranging from 1-4 to 7-8 per cent. Business, on the whole, was less active than on yesterday, and at 11 a.m. the market was about already in
